IMPORTANT INFORMATION – YOU MUST READ THIS SECTION

Your declaration when submitting this form to the Valuation Tribunal

By submitting this application for employment, you are declaring that the information you have provided is accurate and that you are in agreement with the information being processed by the Valuation Tribunal for Wales in line with its registration with the Information Commissioner and the applicable data protection laws of the UK.

You are also declaring that you understand that, if you have provided incorrect information or concealed information which you should have provided, you may be disqualified from the selection process – or, if appointed, you may be summarily dismissed.

Basic identity and security checks, and references

If you are offered a post at the Valuation Tribunal for Wales, the offer will be conditional upon passing at least basic identity and security checks.

See <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service> for details. The Tribunal will pay for the check.

The Tribunal does not ask for opinion references from previous employers or education providers. However, it may ask previous employers or education providers for factual information on your attendance record and timekeeping. Be prepared to provide us with appropriate contact information so that we can undertake this enquiry if you are made a conditional offer of the job.

Assistance during the selection process

If you are selected for interview, we will contact you to see if you require the provision of any facilities that we do not already provide as standard. Our venues are accessible by wheelchair and a hearing loop is available.

Submission of your application form

Submit your application by email or post by the stated deadline. Late applications will not be entertained. Use ONE method only; do not send by both email and post.

By email: send your application form as an attachment to: jobs@valuationtribunal.wales

By post to: (note that there is no requirement for a covering letter)
